the deputies as well as reportorial banter on the proceedings in the hall and in the corridors during intermissions. The papers of next few days should contain texts of the various degrees and resolutions enacted into law by the Supreme Soviet.

Brezhnev's Wrap-up Speech at the plenum has been published in the 30 September issue of Pravda "with several abridgements." The embassy comments that, "It is difficult to determine whether the abridged portions disclosed some controversy in the plenum's discussion of reform, gloomier information on grain production and more precise indication on foreign purchases that the public should see, or too delicate aspects foreign policy, although latter two subjects treated with seeming frankness in published portions." (LOU, T-1088, 30 Sept 65)

Soviet Manned Lunar Landing Schedule? In contrast to previous Soviet hedging, Cosmonaut V.M. Komarov recently revealed that the USSR intends to land a man on the moon before Project Apollo. Komarov asserted in an interview with a Czech reporter that if the American formula for a manned lunar landing is "1969 + X", the Soviet formula is "1969 + (X-1)". (U/Starshina serzhant, No. 8, 65)

P/SS Comment: This is probably the closest thing to a date that we will ever receive openly from the Soviets.
